

Mrs. Patricia J. Bruhl of Hoffman Estates

August 3, 1927 - December 14, 2021

Patricia J. Bruhl, long time resident of Mount Prospect, passed peacefully on December 14, 2021.

The daughter of the late Agnes and Edward Kain, she was born on August 3, 1927. She grew up in Cicero, Il. She met her soulmate Harry R. Bruhl, when they were both employees at the Western Electric Hawthorne plant. They married on July 14, 1949 and were wed for 38 years until his death in 1987. She was a home maker and bookkeeper, helping Harry with his successful accounting firm. Harry and Pat hosted many delightful dinner parties for the neighbors throughout the years. She and Harry enjoyed their vacation cruises. She also liked playing bridge with friends. Pat and Harry spent time together refurbishing antique high chairs, which were displayed in their home.

After his death, she continued to keep books for some of her late husband's clients. She was especially proud of her work with Lilly Engineering, retiring there at the age of 90. That summer, she took the trip of a lifetime, when her grandson Daniel accompanied her to her family homeland, Ireland. She spent many hours with her grandson Greg, playing cards and reading the classics, moments they both cherished. Her last years were spent in the home of Robert and Paula, where she was aided with the help of family caretaker, Halina Sobota.

She is preceded in death by her beloved husband Harry, her parents Agnes and Edward Kain, her brother Edward and his wife Paulette, and sister Gloria and her husband Harry Vlcek.

She is survived by her loving family: sons Dr. Robert Bruhl and wife Dr. Paula Melone, and Thomas R. Bruhl and wife Jessie Wood Bruhl. Her grandchildren include Daniel Bruhl, Gregory Bruhl, Shawn Bruhl, and Justin Bruhl. Her great grandchildren include: Kadin Bruhl, Derek Fisher, Charlotte and Finn Bruhl.
