

Mrs. Patricia Ann Mileski of South Barrington

January 1, 1753 - October 11, 2012

Patricia Ann Mileski, LCPC, MHA, MA, nee Varese, of South Barrington, Illinois (February 4, 1952 – October 11, 2012).

Beloved wife of Alan; loving mother of Kimberly (Jake) DeVries, Kevin (Brittany) Mileski and Kara Mileski; cherished grandmother of Jakob, Anthony, Gabriel and Aspen; and dear sister of Thomas (the late Sandra) Varese.

Friends and family are asked to meet Monday, Oct. 15 at St. Francis de Sales Church, 135 S. Buesching Road, Lake Zurich for visitation from 12:30pm until the Mass of Christian Burial at 1:30pm. Burial is private.

Pat had touched thousands of lives and made this world a brighter place. She had been working in mental health for over 30 years, beginning her career providing group and individual therapy in 1980 in NJ. After moving to IL, she worked at Parkside Lutheran Hospital, and designed curriculum for mental health at Lutheran General Hospital. Pat went on to become a master in the field, and worked as a senior addictions counselor at both Advocate Lutheran General Recovery Center and Barrington Youth Services. Pat embraced the outdoors, enjoying snowshoeing, skiing, swimming and hiking. She played the guitar, piano and had a voice like an angel. Her bright light and warm spirit will forever be felt in this world. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Patricia Mileski Memorial Fund, P.O. Box 1781, Palatine, IL 60078-1781 are appreciated.

This Life Tributes page has been created to make it easy for Family and Friends to share memories, photos and videos.
