“ Patty was a wonderful sister in law. She was always so loving and kind to me and my family. She always told it like it was and was so open and honest. She was such a strong person and it was amazing to witness. She lived for her kids and was soo proud of their accomplishments. We love you, Patty. You will live in our hearts forever.

“ We are so sorry for your loss and unfortunately are out of town and cant be there in person. We have known Patty since my daughter and Kevin were in Kdg. Patty was such a fighter and inspiration but more importantly she was a great person and her love for her family kept her fighting for her life .She was truly an example of someone who used her mind to will her body to live for love.

“ To Patty's family,

Although I never met Patty in person, I got to know her online through her purchases of my cleaning products and then as friends on Facebook. From there I followed and shared her progress and setbacks and was always amazed at her unending tenacity and strength in fighting for her health. I'm sure she was and always will be an inspiration to you all. Sending my deepest sympathy for your great loss.
