“ When we were all in high school, Mrs. Zuhr always took care of us for gatherings in her home. She also made sure all the guys were good and respectful. We thought she could have adopted us her sons. God has another angel with him to look down upon those who are still here on earth.

“ Grandma was an excellent human being. Certainly had a huge part in raising all of us grandchildren along with our parents. To call her and Grandpa a second set of parents is not a stretch. Never a harsh word toward any of us, even in times where it may have been deserved. If a member of the family was in need, they received the focus until the issue was righted. Just a fun, generous loving human being. I will miss her whistling, (which she passed to many of us) her concern for us and all of our lives. She would never have left us unless called upon. God was ready for a great one.

“ Patsy was always one of the most generous and nurturing sisters that I could ever have asked for. Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter dinner parties, time after time, Pat and Ray happily hosted the day for Debbie, Jeff, Chris and me. We love her dearly and will never forget the love and kindness she so often shared with us. We will miss her greatly. GOD SPEED be with you Patsy.
