

Mr. Patrick M. Damm of Arkington Heights

October 16, 1976 - May 25, 2021

Patrick M. Damm, 44, of Arlington Heights, Illinois

Loving husband of Kristin Damm (nee Glasenapp); beloved father of Cameron and Logan

Damm; cherished son of Raymond Jr. and Carol Damm, devoted brother of Kelly Damm.

Patrick grew up in Hanover Park and graduated from Hoffman Estates High School in 1995. He attended Lewis University and Ball State University where he played collegiate men's volleyball and studied history and film. He had a successful 20-year career with SPS/ConvergeOne and was considered one of the top performing Sales associates in the company.

Patrick was a big guy with a big personality who enjoyed being around people. He was kind and generous and willing to help anyone at any time. He greatly enjoyed watching movies, listening to music, playing volleyball, and spending time with his family. A dedicated fan of the Chicago Cubs and Bears, he went to numerous games in person or caught the games on the big screen TV in his home. He was a master at Chess, Monopoly, Risk, and Axis and Allies. An avid fan of all things history, he could talk endlessly about 19th and 20th Century America and Europe, and especially liked discussing the Civil War with his dad. Above all, he loved his family and always wanted the best for them.

“ I was fortunate enough to meet and get to know Patrick through work. He was part of our extended SPS family. Every year, I looked forward to seeing and hearing Patrick. it seemed like he was the greeting committee for every event. He always made you feel good about yourself. Patrick was larger than life and fun to be around. He had a heart of gold and wore it on his sleeve. We miss you and love your Patrick!!

“ Kristin, you and the entire Damm family are in my thoughts and prayers. I met Patrick on a little league baseball field in in grade school. Reuniting years later at Hoffman Estates High School, we quickly became close friends. We visited each other at college, traveled together and I was honored to stand next to him when he made the best decision of his life. When our busy lives took hold, we would often lose touch for long periods. Then inevitably I would receive a voicemail from Christopher Walken, he did a good impersonation, or a random movie quote would appear in my inbox...often from Goodfells or Young Guns. We would immediately snap back into our old routine, like only old friends can. Smart, witty and opinionated, Patrick could talk at length about almost anything. He was one of a kind, I will miss my friend.

“ Always a gentleman! I knew Patrick while working at SPS and ConvergeOne. He grew from an entry level salesperson to a successful enterprise salesperson in what seemed like overnight. He was so sweet all the time and many of his clients became true friends as well. During my time of knowing him, what never changed was how nice he was, how he cared for his family and his wife Kristin and his gentle spirit. May you rest in peace my friend.

“ Kristin, I met Pat once at Alumni Club playing volleyball many years ago. He was such a genuinely nice person despite us being complete strangers! And he went on and on about his wife not knowing you were his wife even though I had known and played vb with you! My heart breaks for your loss and I'm praying for you and your beautiful kids at this time. Much love.

“ Upon meeting Patrick for the first time, I can remember feeling relieved that there was now someone special in my sister’s life that would love all of who she was and that she found someone who was taller than her 5’ 10” stature. Standing 6’7”, Patrick towered over Kristin and he quickly earned the endearing nickname of Ptree because the man was as tall as a tree in my eyes. The name stuck. He was known affectionately in the family circle as Ptree, and one day Uncle Ptree, and I know he truly loved it.

Along with his immense height, Patrick had an immense heart. He would offer his help and support to me, his niece, and nephew without hesitation. Ptree was loved by us all and he will be dearly missed. I will cherish our times laughing, traveling, eating, hanging out, and a few fabulous unmentionables.

*All of our love,
Erin, Gabby, & Ethan*

“ I will never forget playing against Pat in our Monday night coed volleyball league. Steve Havlik crushed a wicked hard hit into Pat's block. I was covering Steve and Pat's block smacked me right in the face, knocked me on my butt and gave me a bloody nose. Boy the power these two boys have...amazing to me. I was totally fine after a few minutes when the stars circling my head cleared. Pat will be deeply missed in the volleyball community. Kristin - We are here for you and your family.
