“ Ron and Kathy I have no words to ease your pain except to say that I think two of the hardest things we have to accept as parents is that things happen that are totally beyond our control and no matter how hard we try and how much we want to we can't fix everything. God Bless you both and God Bless Patrick.

“ I am saddened that your son was in so much pain he saw no way out and even more saddened by your loss. Cutbacks in mental health have caused many families enormous pain as well as the individuals suffering from mental illness. Hug each other!

“ Patrick will forever be one of the brightest exhibits in my ‘Museum of Recollection’
I will remember his enthusiasm, his energy, and his spirit that lit the room... I decry the silent illness that stole him, and so many others.
Sail far and well Patrick... on the Sea of Peace that Life Cannot Afford.

“ The St John family! we are thinking of you and wish you Gods comfort and peace.

This is one thought to keep- he will still be with you, he will not sleep.he is a thousand winds that blow, he is the diamond glints on snow. He is the sunlight on ripened grain,the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning hush, he will be the swift uplifting rush. He will be the soft stars that shine at night...do not think of Patrick as gone,he is still with you in each new dawn.

“ Dear Ron, Kathy, and Sarah,
How our hearts broke this morning as we read the paper. Know that we care and will be praying for each of you as you walk through the canyon of grief. May you feel God's strong arms of comfort, protection, healing, and hope. While it is always hard to understand, we can trust God and know that He has Patrick safe in His arms.
Love you all and always here for you,
Lynn for all the Nash's

“ Ron and family, I am so very sorry for the loss of your dearly loved son. I am praying for you all and asking our gracious Lord to hold you close and help you to navigate this painful time. I know Rick Warren of Saddleback church just recently lost his son in the same way, perhaps there may be some comfort there. God keep you and in time give you peace.

“ To the St. John family, I am so sorry for your loss. Pat was a great man and a great friend. My memories are so fond of him. You are in my prayers daily. I'm sorry we never got the chance to meet, but please know I appreciated your son and thought of him with great happiness. Pat, buddy...I'm sorry we lost touch. I hope you are at peace and are overcome with happiness. You will be missed so much...take it easy and I'll catch you on the flipside.
