“ I met pat for the first time the day before Easter this year. She did my hair. I liked her so much from the minute I met her! She is wonderful and I'm very sadden that God has called her home. What a wonderful soul he has. She talked about her son and family, so loved them. I felt a wonderful friendship with her and I will miss her a lot. How I wish she was still here. I think of her always on and will miss and pray for her. May god give her family strength and peace. One day we will all be together with her and all are loved ones. God bless her. Love, lillian harris

“ Patrycja was a warm, wonderful, talented woman who made the entire family feel beautiful, safe and loved. All of us -- Marina, Sophia and Henrietta -- will miss her so much. She was there for Sophia's first new hair color and Marina's graduation, making the girls beautiful at special moments in their lives. As for me (Henrietta) it was a healing experience any time to sit down with Patrycja. We talked -- oh, how we talked! -- about everything, but our conversations about spirituality I will never forget. It was like we went into a different world. Patrycja was a healer with profound intuitive gifts. So many magical things happened, so many coincidences, so many life problems solved in a magical way when we talked of God and the world of spirit. We sent the flowers in the blue vase in honor of Patrycja's beloved Archangel Michael.
