“ I would like to express my condolences at this time to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement at times like this. A comforting thought is at Revelation 21:3,4, where it states “...And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry be anymore the former things have past away”. This scripture gives us hope for the future! You can also find comfort in Acts 24:15 – Death does not end it all. May Jehovah bring you comfort and peace during this difficult time. Your neighbor, S. Rubio

“ We are so saddened to hear of of Pete’s passing. He was an amazing spirit that brought joy to so many. He was a beautiful boy who grew up to be an amazing young man with great gifts and talents. God bless you all, and thinking of the Almeda family during this difficult time.

“ I met Pete when we were in Evita together. I remember that he could always make me laugh regardless of what was going on. While we lost touch over the years, I was glad I could be in his life in any way. He was an amazing young man, always laughing and smiling. I will never forget what a kind, generous, wonderful person he was. He will truly be missed by all. I know he's singing and dancing his way through heaven with a smile on his face.

“ On behalf of our entire family please accept our deepest sympathies, Almeida family. When last I saw Pete he was buying snacks for the cast that was in dress rehearsal with him at CYT. When I heard him call my name I looked up at a very tall Pete, not the little guy I remembered! He was full of joy then. A great memory!

“ *Pete and I along with our siblings were childhood friends. My brother Evan and I have nothing but the most fond memories with you, Pete from concerts and Old Country Buffet to birthday parties and prank calls. You played a big part of our childhood. There was never a dull moment with you. Always goofing off and making us laugh. We will always remember you. Mr. Pete, Ms. Kim, Katelynn, Jeremiah, Nicolette, Isabella, and Natalia, Evan and I loved your son and brother so much. He was an amazing friend to us. We will truly miss him. “ So sorry for the loss of this very nice and fun individual. Through Joseph I not only got to know him as a winning personality, and fun guy, but also got to know how many mutual friends we had in common. A fun time to know Pete, and my thoughts and prayers for peace and strength, go to his large supportive family.

“ What a sad loss for family, friends and all who were touched by this talented young man. His performance as “Joseph” so moved me that I attended three shows, and brought many friends to share his performance. Rest in Peace in the arms of a loving God.

“ *‘Little’ Pete : We will miss your mischievous laughter, quick wit and brilliant smile. You always found a way to see the best in people; taking advantage of every opportunity to say a kind word, offering a listening ear and showing that you care through your many ‘selfless’ acts — that has turned many lives around! We love you and will miss you dearly. You were a beautiful ‘kid’ both inside and out and you will remain forever in our hearts and minds. With Love,
Uncle Jim*
