

Mr. Philip DeSalvo of Inverness

October 11, 1924 - July 18, 2024

Philip DeSalvo, 99, of Inverness, Illinois.

Guided by truth, honor and an unwavering commitment to family, Philip DeSalvo, our rock, granite-tough, led a life like no other. He served honorably in the U.S. Army, Navy and Merchant Marines, faithfully defending our country during World War II. In 1951, he married our precious, darling mother, Angelina Viscuso in Bagheria, Sicily and emigrated to the U.S. He learned and mastered the bricklayer trade, crafting enduring structures from mortar and block.

He was a master gardener, and having his hands in the soil was perhaps his greatest affection outside his loving bride of 71 years and his family. He could grow anything, anywhere. He'd create new species of tomato, graft fruit trees, always nurturing, cultivating, refining his pastoral craft.

Philip was the beloved husband of the late Angelina (nee Viscuso); loving father of Casey DeSalvo, Joseph (Shawna) DeSalvo, Joanne (the late James) Jorgensen, Philip (Melanie) DeSalvo and Richard (Lisa) DeSalvo; dear grandfather of Aingeal (Joshua) Richardson, Phillip (Caitlin Cicero) DeSalvo, Joseph C. (Gina) DeSalvo, Casie (Justin) Kennedy, Marie (Robert) Gorman, Jimmy Jorgensen, Jessica Jorgensen, Zachary (Kelly) DeSalvo, Philip (Natalie) DeSalvo, Nicholas DeSalvo and Alyssa DeSalvo; dear great-grandfather of Christian, Michael, Joey, Angelina, Jaymeson, Amelia, Eleanor, Florence, Theodor and Evelyn; fond uncle of many nieces and nephews.

“ I am very sad to hear about Mr. DeSalvo's passing. I have many fond memories of him, and all that is depicted in the tribute. I pray that his memories will give you the strength to continue his teachings and all that he meant to each of you and everyone that knew him.

“ It's now a full week since you went to that other side of the world. Surely you have lived, loved, and cared for the many souls. Since I started caring for you, the reception from everyone made me feel I was part of the family. Your wife always reminded me how much she loved me (R.I.P. Mrs. DeSalvo). Despite the few words you had , I am blessed to have communicated with you smoothly with smiles. Even when care moments seemed to be hurting you, you gave me chance to care for you the moment I mentioned that I was a VA nurse.

Caring for you and all the appreciation from your family pushed me on starting up a Care Agency (Soft Hands Homecare services) with my friends. Even when it kicked off, I couldn't leave you behind because I enjoyed spending a day with you showing me the hummingbirds, anything walking in your backyard.

Rest In Glory and with your wife dear Philip DeSalvo.
