“ Priscilla is my aunt. She appears among my earliest memories and was a regular presence during my childhood. I recall a tapestry of events defining her good character. While no stranger to hardship, the Priscilla I remember was always decent and kind, ready to sacrifice for those she loved. Her example left a lasting mark on my soul. She has certainly moved on to a better peace.

“ I first met Priscilla when I joined a group that visited the seniors at Rosewood Care Center in Palatine. She would take her shelties there to make visits and I would go with my shelties. We remained friends over the years. She was a sweet lady and a dear friend. I will miss her.
