

Mr. Ramachandran Krishnan of Hoffman Estates

November 24, 1968 - June 13, 2025

Ramachandran Krishnan, 56, of Hoffman Estates, Illinois.

Remembering Krish

It's with full hearts, yet a profound sense of loss, that we honor Krish – a man who truly lit up every room he entered. Krish was one of a kind, a jovial spirit who could always bring a smile to your face, whether with his quick wit or that hearty, unforgettable laugh. His warmth was like a magnet, drawing people in, and he was genuinely loved by everyone fortunate enough to know him.

Krish was a devoted husband, a loving dad, and a cherished friend. He was the kind of person who was always there for you, offering unwavering support, sharing in all the triumphs, and helping navigate life's challenges. If you were lucky enough to be Krish's friend, you knew you had someone special in your corner. He is remembered fondly by his friends and his family.

Beyond his incredible personal connections, Krish was also a brilliant mind. As an accomplished data scientist and author, he approached the world with a boundless curiosity and a sharp intellect. He didn't just understand complex ideas; he had a gift for explaining them, sharing his passion for knowledge with the world through his writing. His insights will continue to educate and inspire for years to come.

We'll deeply miss his laughter, his wisdom, and his unwavering kindness. But we find comfort in knowing that his spirit lives on in the countless lives he touched and the enduring impact he made. Thank you, Krish, for everything. You'll forever be in our hearts.

The family has created this Life Tributes page to make it easy to share your memories, photos, and videos. “ I'd only known Krish for a year, but he's left his mark on me. We were in business together and saw many challenges as well as small triumphs. He was a brilliant mind, coupled with a giving spirit. I will miss our daily calls, ideating, planning, working and usually laughing! Rest in peace and sending many blessings of peace to the Krishnan family! Patches Seely, CEO DataSanctum

“ I always called him “thalaivar” as I enter the temple. Krish always pointed to the vighrams saying that they deserve that title. But our scriptures say - Gods are bound by bhakthas like Krish. We used to share laughs.

Krish always had a ready smile on his face . But he could also put a smile on face of others. His geniality - infectious

My deepest condolences to Poornima and the boys. My prayers are with them

“ Dear Poornima and family,
So sorry for your loss. I have fond memories of Krishna growing up with him as his younger cousin. We were always laughing when Krishna was around. I spent some time alone with Krishna when he was in Engineering College in Bangalore. He was always easy to talk to and fun. Great guy, and we are all saddened. May he rest in peace and look after his loved ones.

Dear Poornima, very saddened to hear about Krishnan. I met you both on our Alaskan cruise and such a wonderful trip it was! I remember how Krishnan used to keep us entertained with his talk. His bonding with Raghav was so good. We all, including my mom send you condolences and lots of love and hugs to you to bear the loss. God bless his soul. He was such a gentleman and I am sure he is in right hands watching all of you below. God bless you and all in your family.

“ Dear Poornima and Family,

Please accept our deepest and most heartfelt condolences. We are truly saddened by this loss.

Every time we walked into the temple, Krish’s warm presence was one of the first things we noticed. His cheerful spirit, gentle humor, and the way he connected with everyone made a lasting impact.

Madhu and Krish especially had a special bond — like brothers - constantly pulling each other’s legs and sharing a laugh. Their playful banter was always a joy to witness and added to the lighthearted, welcoming atmosphere Krish brought wherever he went.

His Thursday announcements still echo in our minds: “It’s 7 o’clock and we all know the drill. Please get up and come onto the red carpet for Baba’s aarti.” It wasn’t just a routine — it was his signature moment, something we all came to expect and cherish.

Looking at his pictures and that ever-pleasant smile, it still feels like he is with us, watching over and spreading his warmth. His memory will live on in all of us — in the stories, the laughter, and the love he so freely gave.

Our sincere prayers are with you, Poornima, and the children. May God give you strength, comfort, and peace during this incredibly difficult time.

Please know that we are here for you — for anything you need, now and in the days ahead.

“ Dear Poornima,
Our deepest condolences to you and your family.
For the past 3 years since we have been volunteering always found Krishnan Ji, kind, humble and very organized during any functions at the temple, a man so intelligent, but down to earth! During our conversations I called him our Encyclopedia! We will miss his presence always! We pray for the entire family members and ask God to continue to give them strength during this difficult period.

“ With intense sadness and heavy heart, we offer our deepest condolences to the family. We will all miss him deeply. He was such a kind, warm, caring gentleman and dear friend, articulate on every subject and topic we conversed on, vidyarthi bhavan and namma bengaluru included, jovial in his own inimitable way, and a friend for all occasions. We cherish all the time we spent together.

*Our prayers to Poornima, Ani, and Akash. May he rest in peace.
