“ My heart breaks that your family has such sadness to bear. I have been remembering the days leading to Randy's birth...the fun we had planning your shower, the worry we shared when he was born and failed to gain weight, and the unbelievable joy your mom experienced whenever her first grandson was around. May you find solace in sweet memories and may you find the strength to laugh and smile again. We have no other words to express our sorrow. Sending love and hugs. Chris and Kathy

“ My sincere condolences to the entire Ruiz family; Jan, Juan, Tammy, Jackie and Jonathan and all extended family members and friends. Although Randy and I had lost touch over the years, I still recall Friday and Saturday nights at the Ruiz home watching fights and playing pool and getting to know the family. Randy was always great friend fun, witty and always held a positive attitude. This was a product of his wonderful family and I always felt like a welcome guest in their home. May you all find strength in your time of healing and to my friend Randy, may you rest in peace. Thank you for the memories.
