

Mr. Raymond B. Stanis Jr. of Chicago

June 20, 1947 - August 5, 2021

Raymond B. Stanis Jr., 74, of Chicago, Illinois.

Best dad, best husband, best brother, and best Papa. Ray touched so many lives, personally and professionally. He was passionate about whatever he did in life; family, work, cycling, he dedicated his life to being the best he could be. Ray was a mentor to many, whether it be coaching school sports or teaching his trade to his apprentices. Devoted and loving husband of Nancy, married for 51 years. Attended Maryknoll Seminary where he developed a solid foundation and met lifelong friends. Successful business owner of MBR Tool, whose legacy will continue for many years to come. The simple things in life brought him the most joy; sitting in his backyard, birdwatching, observing nature and if you truly knew Ray, riding his bike. True to his life, Ray spent his last day doing the things he loved most. Gone too soon, but will never be forgotten.

Loving husband of Nancy Stanis, nee Arispe; beloved father of Michelle (Jay) Woodson, Raymond Stanis, Bridget (James Gallagher) Stanis and the late Luke Anthony Stanis; cherished grandfather of Calista, Kenny, Tod, Luca, Ronan, Cole, Luke and Peyton; devoted brother of Pamela Barlow, Patricia Stanis, Mary (Jerry) Stanis-Mason, Judy (Nick Koukourakis) Stanis and Joe (Debra) Stanis; fond uncle of many nieces and nephews.

Family and Friends will meet Tuesday, August 17, 2021 from 10:00 A.M. to time of Mass of Christian Burial at 11:00 A.M. at Immaculate Conception Church, 7211 West Talcott Avenue, Chicago, IL 60631.

“ I am shocked and so sorry to hear of Ray's passing. He always was an inspiring person to me and I will miss him greatly.

“ Dear Nancy and family, As you know, Larry went to high school with Ray and we have been in touch with him since then. We had dinner with friends about two weeks before he died. In our last meeting he discussed a book he was reading by a Catholic theologian. The book discussed a common definition of a moral life across religions and cultures. Ray easily met the definition. He looked out for and loved his family. He dealt with everyone with integrity and respect. He felt that any question asked him deserved an honest and straight answer, so we always learned something from our conversations Mary and I were fortunate to have him as a friend. We will both miss him. Mary and I are sorry for your loss. Larry and Mary

My name is Mauro Di Fiore. I met Ray when he was hired probably his first full time job at FMC corporation in MELROSE PK, IL. We worked together until the place closed in 1970. I lived in Chicago and he lived a few blocks from the place we worked at with his parents. I told him to come to Chicago on weekends and I introduced him to my friends. We hung out for a few years and that's where he met his wife Nancy Arispe. After he got married we went our separate ways. Ray was very good person and got along very well with everyone he met. I just found out he passed and I'm so sorry I missed it all. Mauro. I was known at that time as MARIO and I was a close friend with Nancy's brother Angelo. God Bless.

Hello Mauro, this is Michelle, Ray's daughter. I apologize, I'm just reading this now and I doubt you'll ever see this but I want to say thank you for such kind words and a touching glimpse of his past. I was actually born in 1971, so probably not a great time for your employer to shut their doors! You and FMC sound very familiar because my Dad spoke of you often. I want you to know that my Dad was a man of few words and only spoke about experiences and people that left a profound impression on him. Thank you again. This means more than you know ☐

“ Dear Nancy & Family,

We had the great honor of doing business with Ray, Nancy & Michelle at MBR Tool for many years. Ray was such an intelligent and trustworthy person. His family was everything to him. It was such a shock to hear of his passing because he was so strong and in such good shape. Had more respect for him than anyone we know.

“ Dear Stanis Family.

We am so sorry for your loss.

Ray was my son Eric's basketball coach. He was such a nurturing soul and so dedicated to making the kids good players and good sports. Since that time I have gotten to know Bridgett and, through her, understand what a great father and husband he's been.

You will all remain in our prayers.

Sincerely,

Bob and Maria McCabe

Stanis Family, as I sit here thinking about Ray and your family, I remember so many wonderful times shared. We both married young, raised our children together, and spent many happy occasions throughout the years. As couples, we enjoyed long marriages and all the happiness that comes with love and respect. Your father and husband was truly a sincere and devoted family man and it was a joy to have known him.
