“ You are the sweetest, kindest, caring, and loving aunt anyone could ask for. I have so many memories with you that I want to list down every single one them to let other people know how great you are not only as an aunt but also a sister and a mother. When my family was away, you and tito berto came to pick me at the airport and every single day you had to make sure that I was okay being alone at home. You always remembered my birthday and would always call me to pick something from your house and everytime I come you would always bring out food even if I insist I don't want any. You were the best aunt and I will Never forget all of the memories we had share. I miss you already.

“ So many good memories and advise from Mrs Domingo she always made you feel good even when I wasn't so pleasant. She exuded calmness in our crazy work place and always shared what she had- especially great barbeque from her hubby and what I called baconfish that she explained that you had to cook it outside because it smelled so bad and neighbors would complain about it. I remember her saying that you shouldn't worry and that everything will be ok so many times. My fondest memory is when Mrs Domingo and Mrs Delacruz, showed up to my hospital room to see about me and my last born, Aisha. It will forever be a memory of her loving "Auntie" nature. It's people like her that help us to keep the faith and keep a positive perspective with what's going on in these times. For her, we just have to. Love you and miss you Mrs Domingo, Melanie Balogun 🥺❤️

“ BING, WE DISCUSSED SEVERAL YEARS AGO..WHAT HAPPEN TO US WHEN WE DIE..YOU SAID, PEOPLE BECOME ANGELS, AND THAT IS RIGHT .. YOU ARE NOW.AN ANGEL! I HAVE SO MANY MEMORIES OF YOUR KINDNESS, LOVING AND CARING ATTITUDES FROM THE UNIT TO THE BREAKROOMS, FROM THE TIME YOU WERE PREGNANT OF RONALD UNTIL YOU BECAME A GRAND MA. ITS SO EARLY FOR YOU TO LEAVE US.... OUR 30 YEARS OF TOGETHERNESS WAS IMMENSE WITH GREAT LOVE! EVEN IN YOUR DEATH , YOU VISITED ME...10,000 MILES AWAY! YESTERDAY AT 230AM, WHILE I WAS ASLEEP, YOU CAME AND MADE ME FEEL YOUR PRESENCE, AS A VERY SWEET SMELL OF FRESH FLOWERS THAT WOKE ME IN MY SLEEP AND STILL FELT YOUR PRESENCE EVEN I WAS ALREADY AWAKE, PRETENDING TO BE STILL ASLEEP...THATS HOW CARING YOU WERE, A NEUTRALIZER FOR LOVE AND PEACE!
RIP ANGEL BING. CONDOLENCE ROBERT AND THE ENTIRE FAMILY! SENDING MY DEEPEST CONDOLENCE FROM THE CITY OF LOVE, PHILIPPINES

“ One of my favorite memories was watching Auntie Bing hand feed Coco rice. She’d crouch down and hold him in one arm while feeding him with her other hand. This is just one of many examples of how caring she was.
