“ Tita Remy was my mom's sister. There were five sisters and two brothers in her family growing up. What a big family it must have been! In my childhood Tita Remy and my other three aunts really felt like "second moms" to me and their children (my cousins) felt like the brothers and sisters I never had. We all lived so far away from each other. But when we got together it was like our bond as a family transcended distance and time especially when we had our big family, cross-country road trips when my sister Kathleen and I were kids. I am deeply saddened by her passing but I will always remember my Tita Remy fondly as a devoted wife to my Tito Eddie, a loving mother to her two children Cindy and Cezar, and a proud grandmother of her daughter's four sons - Eddy, David, Steven, and Mateo.

“ From my sister's Facebook page about our Tita Remy:

"My aunt Remedious, 'Remy' Villanueva Castano was a beautiful strong women who passed away recently in her sleep after a long battle with Huntington's Disease. I remember long summers in Chicago, playing Majong with my cousins, Cindy, and Cezar, and bullying our defenseless younger cousins mercilessly until they bowed to our clever superiority, and road trips in the Giant Abecia green van, packing Vienna sausage and eating Chicken Adobo on our way to Walt Disney in FL. They all taught me about the glorious blessing inherent in having a wonderful family. I cherish these memories of my mom and her sisters, Tita Remy, Tita Lina, Tita Baby, Tita Chit."
