“ I will always remember the way Bob looked at Mam (Marianne). On any average day you could catch him gazing across the room at the love of his life and saying she is the "prettiest girl he ever saw." It's the kind of love that will surely live on forever.

I will remember Bob's strength and heroism, his appreciation for life, even when it seemed he was being unfairly dealt one bad hand after another, and above all, the overwhelming love he had for his family.

We are all blessed to have known this man, to have memories with him, to have witnessed his epic Wheel of Fortune skills, and I know he will live on through each of us, through his wife, his children and his grandchildren. In Krysta I see his loyalty and kindness. In Scotty I see his strength and dedication. In Danny I see his goofy, dad-joke-loving sense of humor, his intelligence, and his huge heart. I promise to keep Bob's memory alive with our girls. He will live forever in our hearts.

You definitely captured "the man" here, Brooke. Thank you for your love. He loved you, Danny and the girls very much. Like he always said, "I've been blessed". He surely was!!!
