“ An absolutely wonderful gentle man to work with the past many years. He will be remembered dearly and truly missed. I hope he was able to still visit the Botanic Gardens as we talked about so often. A place for serenity and peace.

“ Bob would come over to our house with Denise for a party or holiday, and he was always easy going. He fit right in and you could tell that he was genuinely interested in the people he was talking with. He had an easy smile and a great laugh. He was a good man and a great guy.

Bob and Frank have been best friends for decades. They have been there for each other through thick and thin. They are the best of buddies and have always had each other backs!

A Tribute to a Great Friendship!

Big hugs to you all, all of my memories of Uncle Bob include A LOT of laughter. He had a larger than life personality and I'm so glad you boys inherited his charming sense of humor! I'm glad that he was able to meet little Alan. Thank you Denise for being a bright spot of love and support for him.
