“ Grandpa Steib- you made me feel at home coming to Barrington for the first time. You had this welcoming and happy presence about you. You were always asking me a million questions about my life. You made sure that I knew the 2 most important days of my life would be my wedding day and the birth of my kids and don't worry I'll never forget all your words of wisdom.....

The memory that sticks in my mind is actually a funny one .... the last time you walked into the training room you said "Tami, could you help me out ... can you give me a rub down? " I couldn't help but laugh he had a little fall and hurt his back the night before. I laughed and helped work out the knot. He was so grateful. He swears I cured him telling everyone I was angel, but truth be told YOU were the angel always making everybody feel special.

Rest in Peace Grandpa, thank you for everything!

“ My memory will be of sitting behind the Steib family in worship at Deer Grove Covenant Church. Grandpa Steib had one arm draped over a beloved grandchild and the other holding the bible. I am quite certain the Pastor tried to catch Grandpa's eye during every sermon, because Grandpa's smile beamed like an "Amen" from the eyes. Gayle and Chris Banakis

“ Whenever we think of "Grandpa" we smile. One measure of a life well-lived is the positive impact one has on those who follow. By that measure, Grandpa was a World Champion. We'll miss him but we're comforted knowing that his spirit and values live on in his children and grand children.

“ I was taught that if you have a kind heart and connect with people, the true measure of how you have done is how much they miss you when you aren't there.

Grandpa Steib you have done a tremendous job not only with your family and loved ones, but with so many of us (hundreds) that have come to know and love you.

Thank you and God Bless.

“ Grandpa was a constant companion for me on the sidelines. I've been to dozens and dozens of soccer games and one of my favorite parts of being a spectator was walking in and having grandpa so excited to see me or lately, me and the kids. He was a genuinely warm person and took such personal interest that it made you feel very, very special. I'll always admire the relationships he built, but none more than that with his son, Scott. They made the most of his time and taught us all how to truly live and love one another. Thanks for all of the examples of greatness you left us with! You will always be remembered here on earth. Until we meet again... With love,
