“ Rob was a best friend to my son Eric. We knew him as such a sweetheart, so kind, so respectful with such a relaxing personality. We just loved him. Claudia called us this morning to tell us the sad news. Our hearts dropped. I feel there will be many many people that will miss him dearly.

“ I just cannot believe this is real ... I remember so clearly those little boys playing together. I enjoyed all the posts Robbie shared about the yard improvements and the family and dogs he loved. I'm just so sorry and so shocked at this and just 49 years old. Jill and kids I've not met you guys, but I knew he loved his family very much. And Judy, loosing both the kids she loved is just unimaginable, My condolences just doesn't say or mean enuf on how I feel ... I do know that this isn't the end, we will be reunited at some time ... this I know. God bless Robbies family ... may you find comfort in all the outpouring of love..... “ *My condolences to all of Rob's friends and family. I saw Claudia's fb post about his passing. I didn't know him personally but knew of him in HS. His energy smile and kindness back then were enough to prompt me to post and send my love to everyone who knew him.
May your incredible memories and love ease your pain today
tomorrow and always. <3*

“ Rest in peace my dear friend. I am shocked to hear of your death. I am thankful we became friends on fb. I will cherish our childhood memories on Tyler and Golfview. We lost touch through the years until my Senior year at DCHS. Give Rhonda and your dad a hug. I will miss you Robby. Always in my heart. Thoughts and prayers to your beautiful wife and handsome sons in these difficult days.
