“ Jenelle, I remember one day a long time ago, it must have been a Monday, you had forgotten you lesson plans at home. Rocco drove them to Addams to deliver them to you but couldn't get into the building with the locked doors etc post 9/11. I had just pulled up as I always parked in front of the school. He was so nice and courteous as he asked me to deliver your plan book to you. I thought to myself, what a nice guy. I can see why Jenelle was attracted to him. That story has stayed with me all these years. What a great first impression he left me with! God bless his soul. I'm sure he's one of Gods right hand men!

“ Rocco may have been the youngest of our Frederick Lane Kids, but he certainly was the sweetest. Always had a twinkle in his eyes. A person with big dreams. Even though your life was filled with some adversity, you certainly taught many of us that how to be a survivor and to be passionate about the simple things. How fun it was on Frederick Lane. Your neighborhood friend. I will see you again my friend. Gail Kopin Will (Isakson)

Remembering Roc, his big heart and love for family. He was one of the “GOOD” guys. My husband and I have never forgot how he helped us out in an emergency with tending bar at our Wisconsin supper club. Customers loved him and he was so much fun! Cheers to you 🍷 my dear brother-in-law and friend. Peace and Love, NanceJo & Tom Pallone
