“ Ro I just heard the tragic news today. My mind is still reeling. I feel like I’m in a bad dream and that any minute now I’ll wake up and be able to give you a phone call and have a great chat like we used to do. I’m sorry I didn’t see you in recent years as much as I would’ve liked. I have fond memories of our times together dating all the way back to high school. Although we didn’t speak as much in recent years because we both lived busy lives we remained close friends in spirit. You were always a wonderfully supportive and generous friend. I invariably felt better about myself and about life in general every time I spoke to you. I think you had that same effect on so many people around you. I can hardly believe that you’re gone and that we’ll never get to talk or hang out again. I don’t think I can overstate what a profoundly positive impact you’ve had on my life. I already miss you so much. God bless your beautiful soul Ro and thank you for all that you’ve done for me and for all the other fortunate people around you whose lives you’ve touched in such a meaningful way.

“ Just like individual fibers of a large cloth, many lives are woven into a large metaphorical cloth.
Ro’s life was intertwined with many others.
His death will leave many holes in the fabric of life, both large and small, which will take time to mend completely...if at all.
He will be missed.

“ Our wonderful memory of Ro was his sincere effort to help. "Call me to help", whenever the need arose. "Call me to help" was always Ro's parting refrain when we spoke. This sincere admonition offered infinite comfort over the 30 years of our friendship. This assurance was always present. Our life has been richer for having Ro's friendship and love. In his memory, we will pass his friendship and love forward. He will be missed, Pat and Gail Gilmore

“ Our sincere condolences to Savita and the entire Jobanputra family. Tom And Ro were friends for over 30 years when they first met in dental school. As this friendship developed, Ro embraced our entire family as his own, accepting Tom as his “brother from another mother!” He went so far as sending me a Mother’s Day message while he was sick. He was always so kind to all my children and endeared himself to all of us. You fought valiantly, Ro, and we will not forget you. We are comforted in knowing you are no longer in pain.

May your soul now Rest In Peace!

Much love from the entire Jamiolkowski Family

“ My deepest condolences to Rohen's family. My friendship with Ro began years ago when he was a student in my accelerated chemistry class at Stevenson High School in Lincolnshire. Ro was a very bright and determined student who had tremendous perseverance and drive. I knew that he would accomplish much in his life. We maintained our relationship after he graduated and first attended dental school and then went on to become an orthopedic surgeon. I would invite Ro to attend my chemistry classes and talk to students about a career in the medical profession. He would share a fascinating video of a surgery he performed and would sprinkle his presentation with humor and levity. He was truly an inspiration to my students and to me. You will be missed dear friend. Thank you for your loyal friendship over the decades. Thank you for always being down to earth, humble, and genuinely caring. Thank you for all the ways you loved your family, patients, and friends. May your spirit continue to soar on your new journey. Ron Urick

*Ro,
I knew you for a short time but I felt like I knew you forever. You had a loving soul . You were very kind and generous to my boyfriend Scott. Scott knew you for quite a long time and he spoke highly of you. We will miss you so much and will always have you in our hearts. You are one if a kind!
We love you and weep deeply for you and rejoice also that you have arrived at your final destination.
We love you Ro.
