“ So sorry to hear of Ron's passing. Here's my first memory of Ron. I was walking down Plainview Lane from my house a short block away to check out Ron, who was working on the roof of their house. Scott and Shayne (who I had yet to meet) were playing in the driveway. Ron called out to me from the roof in a jovial & friendly way as I shyly stood there, and invited me to play with the boys. The year was 1964. I was five years old. Scott, Shayne & I have been lifelong friends ever since. I miss those Albert Lea days & my years spent with the family!

Respectfully, Dave Shuldes, A.L. '59-'79

“ For many years I got a call on my birthday and the beautiful singing voice on the other end would be singing "Happy Birthday" to me. I will hear that voice in my memory bank forever.

Yes...and if there is a Casino in heaven, I hope you hit the "big prize" And if I happen to find some on the ground when I am out walking some day, I will know that it is from you.

I love you brother. from your big Sis.....Bev

Nicole, several months ago, at your big party I sat and talked to your dad. I told him you and I worked for the same company and Nicole helped me, she is so smart and he smiled. He was so proud of you.
