“ I will forever remember visiting Uncle Joe and Aunt Rosalie in Melrose Park. The beautiful decorations for Christmas were special to see every year and her cooking was amazing. Was also special to see our mom be with Aunt Rosalie over the years - they were like kindred spirits and always laughed about the times they shared. I still wear the crucifix on a chain every day her and Uncle Joe gave me for my college graduation - will always be close to my heart.

Your words are very comforting, Rich. Thank you. This is such a great picture of them.

“ There are a jokes about a mother in law, and this is one mother in law that only praise can be given. I am a lucky man since I had a loving mother and when I married into this family I was accepted as an equal and loved as one. So having two loving mothers makes me a very lucky man.

Over the 50 years I knew and loved this person, we had many loving conversations. One that always stands out in my mind is the one we had that she said she was afraid of dying. Rosalie being a spiritual and religious woman, I had to ask why. She said she was afraid she would not go to heaven. Being somewhat shocked by her answer I replied, "If you do not make it, then the rest of us are in big trouble. The world has lost a shinning light in her passing. It will take a long time for the hole in my heart to heal. Rosalie, Buttons sends you a big woof too.

“ Aunt Rosalie is the last of our beloved Aunts. We are so fortunate to have had her smile, support & love for so very long. I am sure that we all have many special memories of Aunt Roe. Some may take us back to our roots at 15th & Lake streets. Maybe it was the delicious chocolate Dressels cakes that served for our cousin's birthdays. And then there are all the memories going back to the Lake cottages. And the special times that we waited to see her marching with the ladies of the Altar & Rosary Society in the procession for the Feast. Aunt Rosalie always said she was lucky to be in the Augustine Family. Well, Aunt Rosalie, the Augustine Family was blessed & lucky to have you. And now you are with Uncle Joe holding hands in heaven. We will miss you & love you always. May you rest in peace & keep smiling.
Love from your niece,
Josephine 🙏♀️❤️

“ To all of Rosalie's family. Our heartfelt sympathy and sincere condolences to you on the passing of your Mom, Grandmother & Greatgrandmother! Your memories will be cherished for this remarkable woman whose love for her family, friends & faith was foremost in her life. Her devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel since she was a young woman is admirable, as well as it was to her family & friends, some of which were from her childhood in Melrose Park, IL. We all loved her very much and will miss her forever! We hope & pray her presence in our lives will remain as a true example of unconditional love & respect for all. Our Lady of Mount Carmel pray for us.

For a personal note; I must tell you, dear cousin I surely will miss seeing you and having lunch together at Friendship Village, laughing & talking about old times, seeing you at our cousins luncheons, our "festa, celebrating your 100th birthday with you and other birthdays, too, and, I believe, most of all our phone conversations. Loved keeping contact with you during Covid, when we couldn't come to visit. There was not one phone call where you, my dear cousin asked, "how is Ralph"?, who has health issues! You are the most kind thoughtful person I ever knew and will love you always. Cousin Dianne “ Dear Family, as I write this I am praying for the eternal rest of Cousin Rosalie in the presence of Our Lord. I admired her always. She was pleasant and lovely as a lady could be. God granted her a long life because Cousin Rosalie brought such joy to her family and friends He waited to call her as long as possible.

Sincerely, Cousin James Anthony Augustine
