“ July 16, 2013 Dear Mary and Family, I know that this will take a very long time to absorb. I am so sorry that your mom is now longer with you, but she is up there looking down on everyone who ever came into contact with her. Remember she is no longer suffering and is at peace. My heart goes to all of you.

“ July 17, 2013 Rosemary always could put a smile on my face and it was such an honor to had been able to care for her the times I did. When I would come to her home she always said what a surprise it was to have me there and that she was glad I was there. Mary and the rest of the family know that you are in my prayers during this time.

Hi Mary, I am truly sorry about your mother Rosemary. She was a wonderful person, always has a spiritual, warm, gently heart and smile that you just want to hug her, and I do when seeing her working at walmart. we also used to worked together at Motorola. I have to shared you this story, we worked together same department, we both had the same winter coat, we went home with each other coat, felted weird because her was big and mine was med, that just snude fit to her, next day found out about who coat we took by mistake and we laughed, we hit it off well. Her birthday is day before me, and I always make sure I see her to wish her happy birthday. knowing she was ill for awhile I do call her. will truly miss her...
