“ Ross is truly one of the greats. I looked forward to every conversation I had with Ross because I was guaranteed to share a laugh with him. His positive outlook and approach was not only impactful in the workplace, but also left a lasting impression on me as a person. I am forever grateful for having known Ross. My thoughts and prayers are with the Dungo family, his friends, and his Werner family. - Steve Hilbrich

“ Ross or Teng as we call him here in the Philippines was a very good friend. We were friends since we were second year high school or like junior high all the way to college.

I was in their house during the Mount Pinatubo Eruption.

We had dinner last time he was here in the Philippines and excited to see him again as he was planning to take a vacation this year.

He will be surely miss and it feels like losing a brother.

“ Ross organized, promoted and led our Tuesday and Thursday evening bicycle rides. Everything about Ross was joyful and positive and you just looked forward to seeing him. If he was running late we'd all ask "where's Ross", because we knew he loved the ride....we didn't want to leave before we were absolutely sure he couldn't make it. He'd start the ride with a "riders.....time!"...and away we'd go! At the end of the ride it was typically just me, Ross and maybe one or 2 others remaining. We'd give a fist bump and a "see you next time brother"! I will miss you brother Ross!!! Keep on riding in heaven and "keep the rubber side down"!
