“ Sharon and Tom,
Our thoughts are with you both during this difficult time. It is never easy to loose a loving member of your family, especially one of your children. There is a void in ones heart that will be felt forever. Ryan has made his journey to the heavens. However, the memory of all the good times he had in his life growing up with your family will be with you both forever.
Our prayers are with Ryan and his loving parents. The family. I only met you son a couple times but he was a fine young man. Kind , attentive and had that wonderful smile and personality.
The world has lost a great soul. Heaven has welcomed Ryan into their family.

Anyone he came in contact with he made a better person. I can't recall a time I saw him mad or upset. He was always smiling and laughing no matter situation he dealt with. We can all learn alot from him. R.I.P. big guy.*

“ I am so sad to learn of Ryan's passing. We are not only neighbors, but our son David went to grade school, high school and played football with Ryan. My heart is broken for his family and friends. May comfort and peace come to all with fond and wonderful memories shared by all who loved Ryan. I wish words could bring comfort and healing. Please know you are not alone on this journey. We are all here for you. And lastly, I have no doubts Ryan was welcomed by those who journeyed before him with outstretched arms.

“ The Satera family is heart broken Ryan was such a big part of our lives. Especially mine growing up. His smile, laugh, always positive attitude. His energy was contagious. He was such a good friend and a good person. Life separated us in our later years. But I will never forget the great years we had as friends. Love you big guy! RIP -
