Sarita was born on July 17, 1934. She was born in her home on the kitchen table and departed this world in her home in her bed where she was surrounded by the love of her children. She was an amazing woman with a full life. Acting was her love and started performing in high school. Following her love for the arts by working at the Oriental Theatre in Chicago at the age of 14. She then moved onto work at NBC.

The love of her life swept her off her feet in 1956 to get married and raise four loving and devoted children. In the early '70's she returned to work at United Airlines working in the Red Carpet Room where she dazzled there. She took her family on vacations around the world and reveled in every one of those adventures. “ My heart/love/hugs are reaching out to all of you from Florida. Sari and I became best buds when we were 13. We acted together in school plays, enjoyed many a trip into "the city" together and continued our friendship well past us each giving birth to four children. So many many memories.... one more wonderful than the next. I am only here in FL for the "season" so the photos I have are back home in Illinois or I'd share. Girls and Mike.... I'll bet your parents never told you the fun we used to have when your Dad came home on leave from the Navy. Briefly... they were in love even then... but Eddie and I couldn't resist kidding her how she should keep a close eye on us! We extended that fun and games after his tour was up at his shop!! I don't think any of you can possibly know of the Chicago apartment where Sari would set up Christchild etal on a narrow table just beyond the door. I'd always rearrange it... and we'd giggle. We had special hangouts as young couples...I know they can both see from their place in Heaven together that one of our fave entertainers is still performing at one of our fave hangouts.. THE FLAME. Some of my best memories are the yard parties YOU KIDS HELPED CREATE BIG TIME in the fmly home in Hoffman. I loved your Dad and his parents too. We were all such an extended family. These last years for all of us have had so many ups and downs we regretfully lost many opportunities to manage SOMEHOW to get together. We knew 10 miles had become more like 30 ... but the love never stopped. Carol Marrella Lindstrom
