With immense honor and respect, I'm writing on behalf of Shalini's father Dr Mohinder Narang. He sent me this message this morning to describe the day when Shalini got the best student award and then he wrote about today:

*It was a rainy day I remember
It was a day with a difference
When tears were concealed
The tears are even today
Deep embedded in the heart*

*Your departure made me sad
Like when a solitary flower falls in bloom*

“ Shalini Bhabhi was sweet, soft spoken & would love and reciprocate from within . She was beautiful in & out. I still remember the day when had met her first time before Bhaiya,s marriage. She was dressed in simple cloths & sweet to talk to. She would always be the first one to wish me on my birthday. She was kind hearted too & took care of others over herself. On her last visit to India, my daughter gauri was about to fall & bhabi fell down in order to save my daughter and kept smiling all the time. We have not just lost a lovable person but we have lost a pious soul. Om Shanti.
