“ To my awesome Aunt Sharon, I will love you forever and never forget you. I always admired what a loving family oriented lady you were, you just couldn't seem to ever send out enough love and caring to all of us. You always touched our lives. I'm so happy you had the wonderful family you raised to enjoy your journey.

Love always,
Cheryl

“ *My Dearest Auntie,
Even though I haven't seen you since I was a child, the sound of your voice on the phone and the memories of your laughter will always be a treasured gift to me. My best memory of you is the outstanding love that you had for everyone.
Whenever we would see you when we were just small children, I can remember your huge smile. Then without hesitation, you would race across the yard and kiss and squeeze us all so hard that we could hardly breath. A love like that comes but once in a lifetime and I am truly blessed to have had YOU for my Aunt. Thoughts of you will continue to make me smile. Until I see you again one day, rest in peace Auntie Sharon.*

“ Sharon, my wonderful sister-in-law. My heart is hurting and always will. I really wanted to go to Chicago and visit you once more, but unfortunate circumstances with my health prevented me from doing so. I am so sorry that you had to endure so much pain and agony, but now you can rest in peace. God be with you.

“ Sharon was a wonderful woman. I grew up with her kids in the same neighborhood. I remember fondly how nice, sweet and spunky she was! I was so sad to run across this news today. My heart, prayers and my biggest condolences go out to all her children and family.

“ I'll always remember living across the street from you & our middle two children would play together. Many times we would have a glass of wine together before we made dinner to unwind a little after a long day with the kids. Our birthdays were only 3 days apart & I am going to miss talking with you about all the old & good times we had together. Rest in peace girlfriend & I know we'll be together once again in another life.

Love you Sharon,

“ One day last summer Sharon and I discovered we lived in the same neighborhood at one time. She suggested we do a day in old houses we lived in. I at one time had a house in the far corner of Chicago. Never got to live in this mansion. We stopped and the man in the yard was nice and asked me if I would like to come in and see the house. Many nights I would lie awake and picture the house. It was like walking into your dream. My dream. I owe that to Sharon. It never would have happened without her suggestion. She will live on in my dreams and the good times when "our" group got together. Rest In Peace dear sweet Sharon.
