“ I met Sherrie at the Wildcat in early 1984, she was wearing cowboy boots. We became friends, at one point I drew her portrait and gave it to her. I remember she had a sporty car that she'd bought with her own money. From the comments, it sounds like Sherri knew Jesus, I'm happy to hear that as we'll meet again one day.

“ I am so saddened to hear about Sherri's death. My condolences and sympathy to her family. As has been mentioned and bears repeating all the laughter, joy and fund that we had together and with our friends at CDO, UA and beyond. I can not ever remember a time when she wasn't full of laughter and just plain fun to be with!

“ My deepest condolences to the Reff and Benedict families. I taught Sherri when she was at Canyon del Oro High School and I was a brand new teacher. She was a pistol and the faculty, including me, just loved her! Sherri's can-do spirit, upbeat personality and boundless energy made her a favorite of her classmates as well. She was smart, had a wonderful laugh, and went on to build a great life. The world was a better place for having Sherri in it, and she will be missed. Rest in peace, Sherri.

“ Dearest Sherri, I'm so sad to hear this news. You've always been so warm, welcoming & friendly to me since the first day we met. I believe our common bond of growing up in Illinois & moving to Az helped that. Getting reacquainted at a CDO reunion, we picked up where we left off; you even came to Church with Me & bought MaryKay Cosmetics from Me. Such a loyal & faithful friend who I'll forever be grateful for! God bless, Cindy Santiago Leos
