“ Aunt Mar, Uncle Ivy, Lori, and Mark, I’m so sorry. Word cannot express the grief we are feeling. We wish we were there sooner, but we will be with you to share your heartache soon. We love you with all we have and are praying that God, Grandma and Grandpa have scooped her up into their arms and are watching over us all. She is at peace and we are the ones left to hold the pain of losing her. Psalm 23 “The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.” (KJV) The Lord with you and her forever.

“ marily I am so sorry for the loss of Sherry. I know the pain of burying a daughter. She gave me two of the greatest gifts (Carleigh and Aaron Jr.) that I could never thank her enough for. She was such a loving and thoughtful person and I am forever in her debt. I remember camping with her at lake land when I was like 8 and she was such a blast to be around. My only comfort to all this pain is that she is watching Carleigh for me till I get to see her again. Love to you and bobby.
