“ Shirley was my best girlfriend when we lived on Carpenter St. in Chicago.
I used to love to go to her house and play with her doll house. I was also jealous that she had a piano and was taking piano lessons. Those were wonderful years. She was my best friend, and I hated it when we had to move away. I still remember her birthday as September 6. She was six weeks older than I. I've thought of her so many times over the years.
