

Mr. Stephen B. Yonkowski of Chicago

August 19, 1933 - April 17, 2021

Stephen B. Yonkowski, of Chicago, Illinois.

Married to Julia Yonkowski, nee Askew; devoted father of Jennifer (John) Winfrey, William (Soonok) Yonkowski and Stephania (Tom) Holland; cherished grandfather of Elizabeth, Desiree, Nicholette, Sean, Luke and Maceo. He was the oldest of four brothers, Melvin Young, the late Raymond Yonkowski and the late Eugene Yonkowski.

He lived an incredible life, and lived it to the fullest. He was a classic car and boat aficionado, and he was a voracious reader. He could have a civil conversation with you, even if your politics didn't agreed. He enjoyed music, especially Blues and Jazz, and he will be greatly missed.

This Life Tributes page has been created to make it easy for Family and Friends to share memories, photos and videos.

“ Sending my deepest and sincerest sympathies. Uncle Steve held a special place in my heart and life. He was a constant; always there to talk to, always full of laughter and wisdom with humor. My father (Eugene) always spoke highly of his big brother and the love between them was fondly Witnessed every time they gathered. Their parents surely raised great men filled with love, respect and honor for their family. I will miss his voice which filled my heart with remembrances of my father. I will miss his presence as he always made time for me when I called or visited and I will surely miss our random calls to connect and catch up. His love was as big as he was tall! I am blessed to have had a life with him in it. Goodbye for now Until we meet again Uncle Steve💕💕
