“ OMG. Steven was my best friend growing up. His mom would scold us if he didn't get his practice in, and we even had a small band from the garage. At Farnsworth, Steve was the talent show. We all waited for the finale, and it was always Steve. I worked t DiLeo's for 20yrs a block away and lived on Central.

I would love to hear from any family member to share some thoughts.

“ Seems like only yesterday Steve, you and I were throwing Frisbee's on the beach in California. The road trip we took from Florida to Calif. with Anne will always be something I will cherish.

The smile on your face in the picture of you sitting in the 1965 GTO just after you bought it is on my cabinet and it reminds me of the carefree days we had together.

I'll never forget when you were going to be taught how to ride a bike. Everyone came outside to watch the training and there you were, across the street, riding Jeff Becks bike like you had been riding for years. Everyone had a good laugh.

Saying goodbye is hard, not being able to say goodbye is even harder. Mom sends her love.

Good Speed brother, Mike

“ I love you Dad! I can't even describe what I feel, but I know your looking over me, Renee, and your 5 beautiful grandchildren! I wish I could play the drums like you! I know the Beatles were your favorite, but you were a way better drummer than Ringo! Hug Grandpa Frank, GG, and Aunt Beth.
