“ THE FIVE REMEMBERANCES

I am of the nature to grow old.

There is no way to escape growing old.

I am of the nature to have ill health.

There is no way to escape ill health.

I am of the nature to die.

There is no way to escape death.

All that is dear to me and everyone I love are of the nature to change.

There is no way to escape being separated from them.

My actions are my only true belongings. I cannot escape the consequences of my actions.

My actions are the ground upon which I stand.

My cousin Stevie has always 'stood on solid ground'..... Semper Fidelis Steve and while he has slipped the bonds of this world and left us with an 'unquenchable thirst', yet he remains with us in our thoughts and our soul – until we all meet again.....

Paul and Lisa....you are your Mom and Dad's greatest victory – their greatest gift to the future; stand tall and continue to honor them... our prayers are with you always ---

“ Steve, John and I are cousins, but because the three sisters (our Mothers) were so close we grew up more like brothers . A holiday, birthday or other celebration never went by without us being together. We had many good times as kids. My wife and I also spent a lot of good times with Steve and his wife Linda. I like to remember our traditional New Years Eve celebration of Shogun dinners at Ron of Japan and a movie thereafter. Lots of laughs and good times with good friends. We miss you Steve.

“ My Cousin Steve was one of the most loving people that I knew. I have wonderful memories of his wedding, a Thanksgiving Dinner at his home, hitting golf balls with he and Linda at a driving range, and many more. We exchanged phone calls about every two weeks or so for the past several years.
