“ To add to what I said, I want to say how much Jeff and I enjoyed getting to know Steve. Having you with us here in Florida was very special time together. This is where we got to know who Steve is. He is a kind, gentle soul. He is caring, and just a really nice person to be with. But more then anything else, he made you happy Loni. And I am so so glad you had 13 years with Steve. Rest easy Steve. You are so very loved. 💙

“ My beautiful friend, my heart breaks for you and Steve's family. There are no words that can possibly convey my heartache. Jeff and I know what these upcoming days will be like, and we want you to know how heavy our hearts are. I can't be there for the services, but I will hold you in my prayers. I will be in Chicago in less then 2 weeks and we will spend time together. I love you so so very much Loni. I hope you can feel my hugs.

“ Very hard for me to comprehend writing this about Steve. As I am still in disbelief. I used to think Steve and my mom were crazy. How they could never be away from each other. I used to make fun of them. Steve and my mom were made for each other. I pray that I can look back on my life and know that someone loved me as much as Steve loved my mother or my mother loved him. Steve was such an easygoing Happy soul who always brightened up my child's face. My daughter Adara loved "duck" (her nickname for him) more than anyone. And like my sister previously stated when all the adults were busy talking about themselves at family parties. Steve was endlessly swinging adara around, playing catch with her in the yard, sneaking her donuts every morning, and pushing her on her new swingset. He was full of energy and love and he will be forever cherished in my memories. I'm so heart broken and pray for my mother Ioni and his entire family.

“ Steve had a great impact on my life, as well as my daughters. He was her favorite part of visiting grandma Loni's house. From helping her ride a bike, to pushing her for hours on the outside swing he built for her. I was able to see my mother loved and happy for 13 years because of him. Thank you, Steve, for what you brought to those that were lucky enough to know you. May you rest peacefully now.
