“ *Cousin Sue,
I will always remember how kind you were while I was growing up.
You helped me much during my late teen years. Your heart, smile and kind words of wisdom will always be remembered by me.
Miss you much!

“ Sue and I were friends in high school, remembering times spent at her house eating homemade ravioli. We reunited on Facebook many years later, me in Florida, her still in Illinois. Distance didn't keep us apart, friendship kept us together. Love you Sue, going to miss you terribly. 💔

“ From the very first time my wife Julie and had met Susan, she welcomed us as family. Throughout the years of sharing time together we shared quite a lot of laughs. We feel honored to have had a relationship with Susan. She will always hold a special spot in our hearts

“ Such a great lady and a joy to be around. Whenever I saw her she acted so excited to catch up and be in mine and Ashley's presence. I know these past years she has continued to battle and overcome obstacles put in front of her and we wish this outcome had been different. Sending support and prayers to her children, mother, future grand children, and siblings.
