“ *Joey,
I am so sorry about Aunt Sylvia. She was a wonderful fun person. She had a very good heart and we loved coming to visit when we little and as we got older. Thinking of you and the family at this very sad and hard time in your lives.

“ Dear Dr. Joe and the family of Sylvia:
It was at my parish in Fontana, Wisconsin (St. Benedicts) a fair number of years ago that Dr. Joe introduced Rita and I to Sylvia. I will never forget my first impression of her vitality for life, quick wit, huge sparkle in her eyes and her absolutely robust personality. I never, ever (upon seeing her in church or at the CDS MWM or at the CDCA) did I see her without that beautiful warm smile and her uttering a genuinely sincere hello. Indeed, Sylvia is truly a great lady and now I would imagine she is smiling and conversing with the Lord in heaven. She is now among the angels gracefully and attentively watching out for her friends, family and loved ones still here on earth. Deepest condolences and profuse prayers for family and all those she loved and cherished.
