“ It just seems like last week when I first met Terry when she was an infant (November 1959). Her mother and I are first cousins. I was shocked to learn of her passing. We will remember her in our prayers. She was here only a short while, but look what she accomplished in the time God sent her to us. Peace and Love to all members of the Cullen, Mooney and Serritella families.

“ Terry will be remembered as a kind, warm , funny, beautiful and bright lady who loved her family and friends deeply. God called her home early but surely she is now an angel in heaven watching over all the children she devoted her career to protecting. I was proud to call her my friend and I will miss her infectious smile and genuine warmth. God bless you all during this difficult time. Jennie Rae McGuire
