“ I still remeber the time at WHLee workshop in Chicago where we were sharing our observations relating the human existance and thousands of light-hearted subjects. Then Fumiko`s and Yours visit in Poland, and Barbara`s and mine visit in Japan. Now my heart is hurting so much. Dearest Fumiko and Jumpei. We, all Tetsuo`s Friend in Nowy Targ, are sharing our pain with You, after loss such Great Person.

My dearest Friend. You were the first one who has opened my eyes for violin making.

“ My deepest condolences to Mr. Matsuda's family. I had the pleasure of communicating with Mr. Matsuda for the past few years in search of a perfect instrument & now have one of his 2020 instruments. He was an incredibly sincere, honest person and a gentleman and it was my pleasure and a priviledge to know him. Thank you so much for everything Mr. Matsuda, may your legacy live on forever through your instruments and your family.

“ Anita and Charlie Whalen...
Saying goodbye to Tetsuo is deeply felt in the most profound way .
His camaraderie with me (Anita) was a rare opportunity we in the music world cherish. His generous assistance with accommodating our artists during my years with the Woodstock Mozart Festival transcended what anyone could have expected. For this I am deeply grateful as well as for our special mutual understanding and friendship which I will sorely miss.
As a member of Sukyo Mahikari, I began offering “handyman services” (Charlie), and helped Tetsuo assemble and deliver a credenza to a Chicago rental location. Over the years, Tetsuo never hesitated to offer his services to the organization, and his generous services will be remembered by all of us.

“ We are so sad to say goodbye to remarkable Tetsuo-san. We will treasure the time we spent talking at the Japan Fests, seeing his wonderful work and listening to his remarkable violins and violas there and at concerts. Our prayers and condolences to Fumiko, Jumpei and Aki. Love and Light, Ed and Penny Gang

“ Saying goodbye to Tetsuo-San... I will always remember him as a man of few words but attentive and down to earth and with a quiet and wry sense of humor. And, above all, his dedication to his very unique craft. Once, after a complicated surgery that would keep another person at home, a couple of weeks later, I am hearing that Fumiko and Tetsuo are driving all the way to Ohio to hear Paganini's violin... not for the faint of heart! I will also remember joining them to hear Pablo Casals's cello in concert.

You can take a man out of Cremona, but can't take Cremona out of the man!

He would babysit grandson Aki in Tokyo over FaceTime, join us for garden work... and he made delicious sencha!

He leaves behind his wonderful family, friends with fond memories and instruments that are played internationally.

A remarkable man and a gentle soul...

Eternal peace, Sensei,

With affection,

“ There have been a few times when I had the privilege to see the results of Matsuda san's mastery with wood in addition to violins. One was transforming the surface of an oak-finished built-in cabinetry that had dulled over time, into something that was glowing and luminescent - almost smiling like the artist himself. Another piece is a stand that is used for a book or a piece of music that is several feet high. It seemed as though it was constructed like a puzzle and had the look of inlaid design. I continue to see those pieces many times a week, always saying to myself, "Thank you Tetsuo, for your timeless gift of art!"

“ my sincere condolences to the family of Tetsuo Matsuda. He was a great violin maker and a wonderful person. I will never forget how I performed on short notice the Mendelssohn Violin Concerto with Orchestra with one of his violins and it projected so beautifully. May his Memory be for a blessing and may his many great instruments continue to be played for Generations to come.

“ Tetsuo Matsuda always had a smile when I saw him. Often I sought his help to make things out of wood for our garden in our Spiritual organization. He never said no, and things were done professionally and with pride. On a personal level, he made a lovely soap cutter for me and every year would request one of my handcrafted soaps.
