“ We were so sorry to hear of Tom's sudden death, our sympathy to Kathy and all the family. I am Mary Ann Heneghan nee Wogan, Maureen Driscolls sister, I babysat for Tom and Kathy many times when they only had two children!!! I always enjoyed meeting them at the Shannon Rovers Dinner Dance when my husband and I were in Chicago on a visit from our home in Ireland. Lord rest him, he was a wonderful man.. Kathy you are in our prayers. Mary Ann and Jim Heneghan

Thanks Mary. I'm one of the two you babysat (the other would be my brother Matt)

God bless.

“ Condolences to Karen and Tom and family. Tom Sr. was a great influence and first employer in the industry. He always had a smile ready and a big heart. Truly the last of a dying breed, he always had my respect and admiration. Very sad loss but at least I know he had a life full of happiness. He was a positive touch to all he came in contact with.

“ Kathy and Family: So glad my brother Rod and I were able to reconnect with you and Tom last summer after a 25 year interval. So many memories with Tom, but one we both remembered was working at the chicken farm during the summers of 1952 and '53 in the Crooked Lake area. My deepest sympathies to the entire Luby family. I will never forget him.

Man, if I had a nickel (standard, not wooden) for every funny Dean Johnson/shoveling chicken.crap story I heard growing up...

Thanks for sharing and being a buddy for my Dad, Mr. Johnson.

You're one of those guys who made my Dad'd world as special and colorful as it was.

God Bless
