“ Tim had one of the LARGEST personalities I have encountered in life. He played hard, but he was also a hard worker and he loved hard if he loved you. I was so lucky to be considered a sister by him. He got me through some really rough times in youth and life. I will be forever grateful for his care and affection at a time when I really needed it. We had so much fun together and I will miss him. There are not many memories of my teenage years that do not include him, his wit, his humor, and his bark of a belly laugh. He was a huge pain in the rear, but he bled Kelly green and he honestly had a heart of gold.
