“ Something very unique about Vinod I remember is the strong bond you had with your mom and dad. Over the years I known you always express that loving side of you as most PISCES people do. Your sudden and tragic departure will take a long time to heal. I believe LORD KRISHNA has better plans for you in life journey.

“ I met Vinnie and Victor together about 5 years ago for a project my company was working on. Immediately, Vinnie and I clicked as it was as if we had known each other for years. It was obvious from that first meeting that Vinnie had the special ability to not only be extremely competent, but also treat people as if they had been best friends for years. Vinnie had a special relationship that was visible with his father and I know that it was also carried through to the rest of his family. To his parents and siblings take solace in the fact that the sun will continue to rise and that Vinnie would want your lives to continue on with purpose and happiness. He will always be with you.

“ Vinnie, no words can express how much I'll miss you. I'll always think of you and your heart of gold. The family will never be the same without you. We haven't had enough time or memories with you. But the ones we created will remain in my heart and spirit always. You're a gem and one of a kind. I'll think of you often and smile. Thank you for being apart of my life and family. Thank you being such an amazing son, brother, cousin, and friend. I'll look forward to the day that I see you again. Love you forever Vin.

“ There will never be another Vinnie. As I heard from so many others today in which I agree- he is irreplaceable. I'm a better person for having known him, and I am honored to have been his friend. Vinnie was the most intelligent, vibrant, welcoming people I have ever known. His laugh was adorably perfect, infectious as his smile, and he will be terribly missed... Rest easy, Vin... Until we meet again..

With love,
