“ I Shared this and a few others thoughts on FB:

We must endure the bitter and embrace the better. I grieve the loss of my dear friend Virginia Zdybel. Even though I commented on her Grandson Matt Gierloff and her daughter Kathy Zdybel's posts, I need to Share condolences and memories with more of her loving family and friends. She was a character. Always gracious and generous with her time, thoughts, and the sharing of her family's fishing properties in Wisconsin. It is directly because of her brother Bill Conley and sister-in-law Shirley Conley that I live on Lake Hayward, about twenty minutes away from their respective fishing lakes up here. This morning, along with Matt, Kathy, Dave, Tom, Joe, Marianne (to whom I apologize if I misspelled her name), Raymond Conley, Rich Conley, Cheryl Conley, Emily Gierloff, Becky Vandergriff, Virg's nephew Bob, along with so many more grandchildren, grand nieces and nephews, I share good thoughts and memories as I cry. And smile, knowing she lived a long, full life and will Rest In Peace.

As they come to me, I will continue to share memories, such as over the years, she welcomed my parents, their friends, my wife Sue, my son David, and some of my visiting friends into the peaceful Solarium overlooking the lake. In Chicago, the Zdybel's lived about 3 blocks from me in Brighton Park, for about 40 years or so, and before that, the Conley's and I lived about 3 blocks apart in Garfield Ridge. All three of those residences house other families now, but I had fun in all of them. I hope Bill, Shirley, Joe, and Virg are all playing pinochle together, laughing, cursing, yelling, sipping nourishing beverages, and enjoying Heavenly Afterlife.
