“To Peter and family, I am so sorry, she will be greatly missed by many people especially her loving family. I will miss sitting and talking with her at dinner at our “Lake Parties” and dancing up a storm afterwards; she was an excellent dancer. I’m blessed to have known her and that she gave me those happy memories of her. I know that it’s very painful for you right now; but hold on to your good memories of her, she will be with you that way and with time you will heal. Know that many people are thinking of you and sending love and prayers.

“ A lovely poem that I find comforting. R.I.P Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight, I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there. I did not die.
