“ September 30, 2013 Alicia & Family, We were very sorry to of the passing of Wayne. I have known him since the first grade and shared some moments with you and him at St. Viators's High School when our boys were there. Wayne & I also vacation at the same location when we were kids. Does he still have my picture posted in the garage? Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this sad time, but always remember to put your trust in grace as HE will deliver his promise of reuniting us all in a never ending life full of grace & truth. Put your life into the palm of Gods hand and HE will show you peace. There is an old Irish saying -"Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leave a memory no one can steal", may you find comfort in Wayne's and your memories. RIP Wayne. With love and prayers. Anne (Burke) Gilson.

“ What a shock, just got a text concerning Wayne’s passing. We worked together at Bankers when he came over to the Group Division after his stint as President over the affiliated companies. I knew him when he was with the affiliates also. A sad day when he left Bankers, even sadder now. He always had a deep love for his family and always talked highly of them. I remember when I ran into Wayne out at the air force base at O’Hare and we got to see the F117 Stealth Fighter for the first time and then spent time together looking at some of the other aircraft on display. We talked about that a lot back at the office. Remember the good times! Al Coughlin / Park Ridge

“ My sympathies for your loss. Both my late wife (Patricia Ann - Thomas- McCall) worked with Bankers. Although I worked there only 3 years, my wife worked there 27 years. I am sure my wife knew him more than I. She left Bankers back in March 2001 prior to her death in July of that year.

“ September 30, 2013 To Alicia & Family, You are in my prayers during this difficult time and it is very difficult when you loose a loved one in your family. Wayne will always be remembered the expert gardener and very talkative neighbor. I know how you feel that your family deals with the loss of one important family member. The Holidays will be tough the first year without them. I remember my mother was heart broken loosing her spouse but she new my dad wanted her to be strong and continue to do things that made her happy and she had me and my sister for support and love. Amada and Pete it is hard to loose a parent. You always have hang on to the great memories and your realize your relationship with your father was extra special that you did not realize when they were living. Your dad left you with lots of good memories of him and he was strong and a good fighter. My parents and your parents were very good neighbors in the Highland's. Always helped each other out when needed. I remember back in the day when families only had one car per household. My mom was a stay at home mom and dad took the car to work. Your dad and an extra old car that your mother had if she needed to take you to the Dr. A few times my mother had to take I or my sister to the Dr. cause we were running a fever and she had no Car. Your Mother Alicia allowed my mother to use your extra car. Your Mother learned a lot from my mother from the kitchen. All our good times swimming in our pool before your dad bought one for his family. All these good stories to hang to and the great pictures you have taken in past years. He had good life and family that was close and loved one another. Continue to keep you in my thoughts and prayers and things get easier with him not present in your daily lives every day. He did leave a great impression on everyone he came in contact with and will not be forgotten and we had good times in the neighborhood in the Highlands. God bless the from Jack and Florence Maas Family. ~

“ Alicia, Amanda & Peter:
I was so sad to hear of your loss. He was a wonderful man. Loved his family so.
I worked with Wayne at Bankers/Constitution for many years.
Alicia, you & Wayne danced at our wedding 29 years ago.
You are all in our prayers.
God Bless.
