“ Nancy,

I am so sorry for your loss. Bill was definitely one of the good guys. The older I get the more certain I am that one of God's greatest gifts is a sense of humor to soften life's hard edges. Bill was given an extra dose of this gift and shared it with everyone. It has been way too long since we have been together but I cannot remember attending a family function where Bill was not at the center laughing or making people laugh. Smiling and laughing are darn good ways to remember someone and that is how I will remember Bill. I will be praying for you and your family.

“ *Bill and Nancy were the first parents we met on the trip to Austin when we moved Abby into the dorms at The University of Texas. We had so much in common- only daughter, soccer obsessed family and empty nesting...
It was the Schmalz's larger than life smiles and laughter that gave me reassurance- our only child would share similar life experiences with another only child during this next chapter of their young lives-*

*Thank you and God Bless-

“ There was never a soccer game that you wouldn't hear Mr. Schmalz shouting passionately from the stands. He was a great support system and never failed to cheer on the team. Thanks for all the advice, laughs, and good times. Rest easy, Mr. Schmalz.

“ Although he left us too soon, Bill blessed many of us in the time we shared with him. He had amazing self-confidence and optimism. Generous and open-hearted, he enthusiastically was always ready to help anyone in need. A genuine leader and example to follow.

Perhaps most importantly for me, without Bill I would not be what I am today; there are very few people in life that truly have a long-lasting impact on you. Bill was one, and words can't describe the profound effect he had on many of us. Thanks for everything, Bill! You'll never be forgotten.

“ On behalf of several of Bill's friends that have not gotten the notice yet, our sincere condolences to his family. Bill was a great guy that I knew from St. Hubert's for over 18 years. He always said with a smile on his face, I have been blessed with a great wife, a daughter that he used to visit while in college, and proudly wore a Texas Long Horn T-shirt. He loved his family, and he loved to ride his Harley. We joked around a lot, and he knew that I always came up with acronyms, so one day just to bug me... he said bet you can't come up with a acronym for:

SUPERCALIFRAGILISTICEXPALIDOCIOUS

SO i DID JUST TO BUG HIM- LOL

The above word is a adjective that simply means-extraordinarily good, wonderful

Bill had a big heart that deserves a big word that has a simple meaning

“ I first met Bill at his niece Jenny's 1st birthday party and just so enjoyed his sense of humor and playfulness! I've seen him at several family functions since then and really appreciated his 'out of the box' thinking. He obviously loved and adored his wife and daughter. He will be greatly missed by all. It was a pleasure knowing him over these years.
