“ My condolences to Patti and family on the passing of Bill. I crossed paths twice in my life: Once when we were involved with HEAA football, and then again when I worked at Edwards Engineering and met him again through a mutual co worker of mine: Mike Cambio. I would periodically see Bill and Patti at Mariano's but never spoke to either now knowing if they would remember me. My deepest condolences on Bill's passing. I will keep all in my prayers.

“ Dearest Patti, Bill Jr., Michelle, Gregg and families, we offer our prayers and love for your family's peace during this time of a fun-loving and big-hearted man's passing; he was so proud of you. Stay close to and rely on God and the Great Spirit. We are thankful that God blessed us with such a warm and caring "Cuz". He gave us many sweet moments we'll never forget: visits to the big corner house in the great Chicago neighborhood you both grew up in, dancing at our Bill's wedding in Wisconsin, Cuz's 50th and Uncle Steve's Edgerton 95th birthday and our father's Oshkosh WAHF Induction. No words or feelings can express the loss of our beloved "Cuz". He will remain in our hearts and homes eternally. We know that Husko, Doris, Richard Cel and "Cuz" are now in heaven together. We believe that when someone touches your life for good it cannot be diminished by time or distance. Love, Bill and Maureen Sanford and families

“ MK..I don't have the words? What do I say to the man that welcomed me when your oldest son brought me over to meet you and PK at the age of 9 years old and told me that you are always welcomed? What do I say to the man that taught me how to play chess and about every board game that ever was made? How to play card games and especially poker? (Learned the hard way with that one). All the years of coaching football together? As we got older you always laughed at us because we were always together with our group and we always ended up doing dumb stuff. After you laughed you always schooled us. What do I say to the man that treated me like one of his own sons? The only thing that I can say is....I love you MK!!! You are without a doubt, a 2nd father to me and a lot more from our group! You are the best! You have helped me to become the man I am today!! You will never be forgotten! Love you MK! Rest in peace!
