“ Bill was always a favorite in the office. He was perpetually happy to see you and could be counted upon for an encouraging word. Later he kept in touch with us on Facebook, again with encouraging and positive thoughts. Will miss his frequent comments on our Cubbies. Anita, glad the two of you spent so many fun times together! My sincere condolences.

“ Bill was one of the most calm and serene individuals I knew. I never saw him angry or enough frenzy.

Hey had this strange love affair with spicy Mexican food. He would order the spiciest item on the.

You could almost set your watch to his reaction.

He would take a few bites. And then slowly his neck would start to turn pink then red. The redness would begin to deepen and spread throughout his face to the top of his hat. We are talking tomato red here.

Once the color change was completed he would begin to sweat Copiously.

It seemed like he would sweat for an hour. Always with a contented grin on his face.

Bill was one of the few good ones. He will be missed.

“ The time I spent with Bill and Anita were some of the happiest times and will be remembered always. From Bingo to our Kentucky trip to working together Bill could be counted on to cheer you and make it a happy place. My heart goes out to Anita and the family. Bill's passing leaves a hole in our hearts but we are comforted knowing he is at rest.

“ Bill and I had a terrible job together. I once looked over at him and he was looking up at the ceiling. I asked what he was doing, he said counting the indentations in the ceiling tile. I asked which tile. The place was terrible. Bill made it livable and even fun at times. Safe travels my friend. Thanks for being you.
