“ I am shocked and saddened to read this news of my former student. Yered was one of my best students ever! I taught her English in Franklin park. I was so lucky to attend her tenth birthday at her home and then to meet again when she was about 22. I am sending condolences to her family,even though two years late. Love and hugs to her mom and family! May Yered rest in peace! ~Diana Wash

“ Gaby! Te nos fuiste muy pronto. Pero mil gracias por ser esa amiga indispensable durante cada momento de nuestras vidas. Siempre estuviste en los mejores y peores momentos de mi vida y siempre me recordabas lo alegre que teníamos que ser ante la vida y enfrentar cada obstáculo como un juego. Gracias por el aliento a seguir adelante aún teniendo tus propios desafíos. Se te extrañará mucho. Tengo tantos buenos recuerdos y unos momentos llenos de carcajadas que con eso me quedo.

Thank you for teaching me to be myself with your raw, unedited and unfiltered version of yourself. Thank you for sharing life with all those you loved.

You will be missed, Yered.

“ I have no words to describe the depth of pain I feel at your loss. You were my coworker and my protégé, but most of all you were my dear friend. Full of curiosity, intellect, ambition and vibrancy. Full of pride and a force to be reckoned with! I enjoyed you. I respected you. I loved you. And I always will. My deepest condolences and prayers for peace and comfort to your family and to everyone who knew and loved you. ❤️

“ Yered, since the first day we met I knew our friendship would last forever! I will cherish every moment we lived together from sitting in my living room eating a whole pizza to ourselves then laughing after it was all gone to you being in my wedding and then meeting my babies. We were only a call away as I moved to another state. I'll carry you with me safely tucked within my heart! Now Rest in Peace and let your beautiful soul fly free.

“ Yered we met in High School we had freshman English class together. You were naturally curious and asked me some pretty personal questions like, who’s you’re hero to try and get to know me. You were kind and compassionate and that always stayed with me as your first impression. Through the years I saw your achievements like going to college and how hard you were working. My favorite thing about you was how involved you were and how much you advocated for dogs that needed foster parents. You are a hero in many ways, you are inspirational, and I hope you know you were so very loved.

Yered, the many adventures we had as young girls will forever stay in my heart. We were inseperable the best of friends! I always admired your intelligence, and beautiful heart. I am so sorry we didnt stay in touch as we parted to different colleges. I will always have you in my heart. May your sweet soul rest in peace. We love you!

Gaby, it's crazy looking back on the first day we meet. You were a first time parent to Sucio. You were so personable that day, we hit it off and we were lucky enough to become friends. We made some good memories together and even had the pleasure of meeting your latest fur baby, Poo. Thank you for having such beautiful soul and always welcoming Michelle and I to your home. We will always miss you and never forget you! Until we meet again my friend!
